SOUTHFIELD, MI.....OCTOBER 2011

ANGELS' PLACE 19TH ANNUAL DINNER HONORS AMERICA'S VETERANS

Angels' Place, a nonprofit organization serving persons with developmental disabilities, will hold its 19th Annual Dinner November 2 at the Hyatt Regency in Dearborn. Featured speaker is Louis Zamperini, World War II Prisoner of War and central figure in the bestselling book Unbroken. Zamperini's story of "survival, resilience, and redemption" has captured the emotions of millions. The program will honor Zamperini as well as all veterans in attendance with a patriotic theme. Tickets are $175 per person. A patron ticket is available at $250 and includes a private reception with Louis Zamperini. Honorary Chairs of this year's dinner are U.S. Sen. John McCain and Capt. Edwin Arthur Shuman III, USN (Retired), both POW's of Vietnam.

"We currently offer housing for nearly 100 individuals, but we have a waiting list for more than 300," says Cheryl Loveday, Executive Director. "Angels' Place provides care for life. Through fund-raisers such as our annual dinner we are able to continue to provide services." The recipient of the 2011 Provider of the Year Award from ARC of Oakland County, Angels' Place homes are located in the tri-county area. Dinner tickets are available online at www.angelsplace.com or by calling 248-350-2203. Raffle tickets for a 24 month lease on a 2012 Ford Focus are also available.
