

Website Privacy Policy

Effective 9/22/2013

GENERALLY

Angels' Place respects the privacy of every individual who visits www.angelsplace.com. We are committed to protecting your privacy at all times, in all situations. The information we collect about you when you become an online member, donor or volunteer, is used to process your donation or request for information.

Because your privacy is important to us, we provide you with notice and choices about the collection and use of your information. To make this notice easy to find, links are provided at the bottom of our homepage and on every page within our Site. Additionally, each page that requests personally identifiable information reminds you of the importance of your privacy and provides a link to the privacy policy.

HOW DO WE USE THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT?

When you join Angels' Place online community, make a donation or register for an event; we ask you to fill out a form that requests, your name, address, e-mail address, and telephone, as well as some other basic information.

Your name and address information is used solely to process your donation or request for information. By default you will be added to our mailing list but you are given the opportunity to decline our mailings. By policy of Angels' Place, this information will never be sold, given, rented or traded to others.

OUR USE OF WEB SITE LOG FILES

When you browse through our website, we gather and temporarily store technical information about your visit. This information does not identify who you are. The information we collect includes the name of the domain you use to access the Internet (for example, aol.com, google.com); the date and time of your visit; the pages on our website that you visited; and in some instances the address of the website you came from when you came to visit (if you came from one of our 3rd party sites like Facebook).

We use this information to improve our website and provide a better user experience for our visitors. We may use a tool, such as Google Analytics, to collect and aggregate this information. This information is available only to web managers and other designated staff who require this information to perform their duties. It is retained only for as long as needed for proper analysis.

FILE SECURITY

All Angels' Place workforce takes your personal information very seriously. All Angels' Place workforce must learn and follow our security policies. Access to your personal information is limited to key personnel. The information is ID and password protected. Our web security is reviewed regularly.

USE OF INTERMEDIARIES

Angels' Place utilizes the services of intermediaries such as the United Postal Service (UPS), FedEx, and various direct mail firms to process and/or send out to our member renewals, solicitations, newsletters and orders. To our knowledge, these intermediaries do not store, retain or use the information in any way.

OUR USE OF COOKIES

We use web measurement and customization technologies, such as cookies, to help our website function better for visitors and to better understand how the public is using our website.

Angels' Place uses "cookies" to test and optimize our website design and content. A cookie is a small text file automatically placed on your computer. We use two types of cookies on our websites:

We use session cookies to gather data for technical purposes, such as enabling better navigation through our website and generating aggregated statistics about how the website is used. Session cookies are temporary text files that expire when you leave our website. When cookies expire, they are automatically deleted from your computer. We do not use session cookies to collect personally identifiable information, and we do not share data collected from session cookies.

We use multi-session cookies, a.k.a. persistent cookies, to customize our website for frequent visitors and to test variations of website design and content. Multi-session cookies are cookies that are stored over more than a single session on your computer. We do not use multi-session cookies to collect personally identifiable information and we do not share data collected from multi-session cookies. Our multi-session cookies will clear whenever your system is scheduled to clear cookies or you do system clean up.

You can take actions to block cookies. Blocking these cookies from your computer will not affect your access to the content and tools on our website. Instructions to block cookies are available on USA.gov http://www.usa.gov/optout_instructions.shtml.
